

Discussion on Reopening Currie Kirk for Private Prayer

In line with directives from the Church of Scotland, Currie Kirk Session met via a Zoom meeting on Tuesday 14 July to discuss the possibility of opening our Church Buildings for Private Prayer.

After much debate and discussion around the Guidelines and Risk Assessments to be implemented, Session agreed NOT to open up our Church Buildings (the Kirk and the Gibson Craig Halls) at this time. The Lock-down rules are continuously changing and we are taking advice and direction from the National Church. We will keep you informed as the situation evolves.

Many of you will be disappointed with our decision, but the safety and wellbeing of our congregation and volunteers is our paramount concern.

Donations to Currie Kirk

Many of you have been asking if you can make a donation to Currie Kirk Funds in light of reduced income from our Sunday morning services and no income from our Halls. We still have commitments of around £9,000 per month to the National Church in the form of Ministry & Mission contributions.

Therefore, if you wish to donate, please contact our Treasurer, Eddie Pigott, on 0131 466 1459, email: pigottsef@icloud.com or alternatively Nina in the office on 0131 451 5141, email: currie\_kirk@btconnect.com.

Alternatively post a cheque through the letter box at the Kirk Office.
